To Whom It May Concern:

In reference to Bankruptcy Case No. 08-1799(BRL) I am attaching documents supporting our tie to Bernard L. Madoff. We had an account with Strattham, our investment company, who solely placed our money, together with other investors, onto Bernard L. Madoff. This was our entire savings and personal pension account which has since been lost. Please recognize us as individuals and not as one entity (Strattham). Although we contributed as one group because our finances were not enough to sustain an individual account, we were still investors of Bernard L. Madoff.

Thank you for your time in this matter. We can be reached at the above address and phone number.

Sincerely,

Christopher J. Altieri

Dear Chris & Marie,

On Thursday, December 11, 2008, Bernard Madoff was arrested and charged with criminal securities fraud. The Securities and Exchange Commission has also filed a civil fraud suit against Bernard Madoff and his firm, Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities LLC ("BMIS"). According to the SEC Complaint, BMIS's business is alleged to have been a "Ponzi scheme" in which investors' funds were used to create the appearance of profits and to make distributions to investors. Based upon statements allegedly made by Bernard Madoff that are quoted in the Complaint, BMIS's business was "all just one big lie." It has been publicly alleged that Madoff's fraud involved a loss in both cash and securities of as much as US $50 billion.

As you know, the sole investment of Strattham Partners ("Strattham") is a securities account with BMIS for which BMIS is the investment adviser with discretionary trading authority. Only the partnership maintained an account with BMIS. At this time the present value of Strattham's investment with BMIS is not known or certain. On Friday, December 12, 2008, Judge Louis Stanton of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York placed BMIS in receivership and appointed Lee Richards of Richards Kibbe & Orbe LLP as the receiver. Irving Picard of Baker Hostetler has since been appointed the trustee in the liquidation proceedings.

According to its website (www.sipc.org), the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") acts as a trustee or works with an independent court-appointed trustee in a missing asset case to recover funds. In general, and according to the information on the SIPC website, SIPC funds may be available to satisfy customer claims subject to review for a maximum recovery of $500,000 on customer securities claims, including a maximum recovery of $100,000 on claims for cash. Other than the SIPC claim, the partnership may also eventually decide to bring one or more legal actions against BMIS and Madoff, or any other legally responsible party, either individually or as part of a class action.

Unless otherwise instructed by the partnership, I will file the SIPC claim on the partnership's behalf. Only one SIPC form may be filed on behalf of the partnership. It is my current intention to file the SIPC form by the March 4, 2009 deadline. The SIPC form does not permit identification of individual partners in a partnership investor. Moreover, it is my current understanding that SIPC may not approve applications of individuals or entities who indirectly invested with Madoff through partnerships such as ours. I urge you, however, to seek your own legal advice regarding your individual rights under SIPC. If you decide to file your own SIPC form, the BMIS account number for Strattham is 1-ZB-262-3-0.

Due to the Madoff and BMIS fraud, the partnership accounting firm Morrison, Brown, Argiz and Farra LLP ("MBAF") and I are exploring whether Strattham will file amended tax returns for 2005, 2006, and 2007. In that event, I will also be working with MBAF to issue revised K-1's to each of the partners in the partnership. MBAF is also working on the 2008 tax return for Strattham and will issue K-1's to the partnership as soon as possible. Again, I personally urge you to seek your own legal and accounting advice with respect to the propriety of filing your own amended returns once you receive the partnership's revised K-1s.

I will keep you advised of developments as I learn more about the situation.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Thomas Avellino", with a horizontal line drawn through the middle of the signature.

Dear Chris and Marie,

On Wednesday, April 2, 2009, Strattham Partners ("Strattham") received the following documents: (i) a subpoena from the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") to Strattham; (ii) a subpoena from the SEC to me, in my role as managing partner of Strattham; (iii) a demand letter from the Trustee in the liquidation proceeding of Bernard L. Madoff Investment Securities; and (iv) a subpoena from the Trustee.

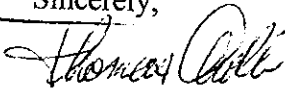

As you know, I previously retained Arent Fox to personally advise me in my capacity as managing partner of Strattham. In order to respond to the requests in these documents, I have now separately retained Arent Fox to advise Strattham. Their representation of Strattham is limited to responding to the documents set forth above.

The subpoenas issued by the SEC and the Trustee request documents related to the partnership including: partnership agreements, partner distributions, financial statements, and documents relating to our investments and communications with Madoff. On behalf of the partnership, Arent Fox will gather, review and produce documents responsive to the subpoenas in item (i), (iii) and (iv).

In the demand letter, the Trustee asks that the partnership return $4,250,000 in redemptions that we received from Madoff and then distributed to individual partners pursuant to their prior redemption requests. The trustee is demanding the return of these funds because the transactions occurred within the 90-day period prior to December 11, 2008, the filing date of the Madoff liquidation proceeding. On behalf of the partnership, Arent Fox will contact the Trustee and challenge the Trustee's request that the partnership return the funds.

I will keep you advised of any new developments as they occur.

Sincerely,

Thomas Avellino

March 11, 2009

Dear Chris and Marie,

On February 28, 2009, Strattham Partners ("Strattham") filed a claim for reimbursement with the Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC"). As noted in my last communication with you dated February 5, 2009, each of you should consult with your own personal advisors whether or not you should file your own individual claim with SIPC.

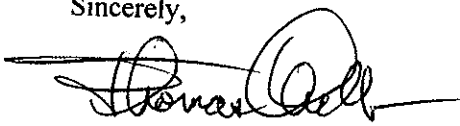

Strattham's outside auditors are still assessing the extent of any potential losses as the result of the investment by Strattham Partners at Bernard L. Madoff Investment Services LLC ("BLMIS"). Therefore, on or before April 15, 2009, Strattham Partners will file a federal extension (Form 7004) with the Internal Revenue Service to extend the filing due date of the 2008 partnership tax return (Form 1065) to September 15, 2009.

Since our outside auditors are still reviewing and assessing potential consequences related to Strattham's investment with BLMIS, they believe it prudent for Strattham to file a protective refund claim for the 2005 federal partnership tax return form (Form 1065) prior to the expiration of the federal statute of limitations on April 15, 2009. By filing the protective refund claim with the Internal Revenue Service, Strattham will reserve its right to file a 2005 amended partnership return as the result of the investment with BMIS.

I strongly recommend that all partners contact your own tax advisor regarding (1) the filing of an extension of your 2008 personal tax returns; and (2) the preparation and filing of a protective refund claim for your 2005 personal tax returns with the Internal Revenue Service prior to the expiration of the federal statute of limitations on April 15, 2009.

I will continue to keep each of you advised of any new developments in a timely manner.

Sincerely,

Thomas Avellino

January 14, 2009

Dear Chris and Marie,

I have received several telephone inquiries concerning Bernard L. Madoff Investment Services, ("BLM"). I want to pass along whatever knowledge I have to date concerning the BLM situation.

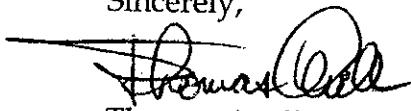

On December 15, 2008, Judge Louis L. Stanton entered an order in a proceeding filed by the Securities and Exchange Commission in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, that appointed Irving Picard as Trustee for the liquidation of BLM pursuant to the Securities Investor Protection Act ("SIPA"). All claims by customers of BLM will be processed by Mr. Picard as SIPA Trustee. The deadline for filing SIPA claims is March 4, 2008. I have received a claim form from the SIPA Trustee and am in the process of reviewing it and the procedure for filing it.

The failure of BLM has created great uncertainty and the ultimate outcome of this unfortunate situation is unknown. It appears that BLM may have provided us with false statements which overstated the balance of our holdings and gains derived there from.

In light of this unusual situation, I recommend that you consider consulting with your own personal advisors on this matter to determine the most appropriate course of action for your particular situation.

I anticipate providing you with additional information on the status of this matter in the near future. Please let me know if you have any questions. I can be reached at 732-673-5247.

Sincerely,

Thomas Avellino

Re: Case Number: 318A-NY-301292, Madoff

Dear Marie Altieri:

Please note that SIPC and the FBI are two entirely different entities. The FBI does not have any information regarding SIPC claims.

Your name was referred to the FBI's Victim Assistance Program as being a possible victim of a federal crime. We appreciate your assistance and cooperation while we are investigating this case. We would like to make you aware of the victim services that may be available to you and to answer any questions you may have regarding the criminal justice process throughout the investigation. Our program is part of the FBI's effort to ensure the victims are treated with respect and are provided information about their rights under federal law. These rights include notification of the status of the case. The enclosed brochures provide information about the FBI's Victim Assistance Program, resources and instructions for accessing the Victim Notification System (VNS). VNS is designed to provide you with information regarding the status of your case.

The Victim Notification System (VNS) is designed to provide you with direct information regarding the case as it proceeds through the criminal justice system. You may obtain current information about this matter on the Internet at WWW.Notify.USDOJ.GOV or from the VNS Call Center at 1-866-DOJ-4YOU (1-866-365-4968) (TDD/TTY: 1-866-228-4619) (International: 1-502-213-2767). In addition, you may use the Call Center or Internet to update your contact information and/or change your decision about participation in the notification program. If you update your information to include a current email address, VNS will send information to that address. You will need the following Victim Identification Number (VIN) '2319230' and Personal Identification Number (PIN) '9380' anytime you contact the Call Center and the first time you log on to VNS on the Internet. In addition, the first time you access the VNS Internet site, you will be prompted to enter your last name (or business name) as currently contained in VNS. The name you should enter is Altieri.

If you have additional questions which involve this matter, please contact the office listed above. When you call, please provide the file number located at the top of this letter. Please remember, your participation in the notification part of this program is voluntary. In order to continue to receive notifications, it is your responsibility to keep your contact information current.

Sincerely,

Laura Riso
Victim Specialist
